

Interfaith Sunday

February 25, 2018
Sunday 11:00 am Service

Formerly called “Brotherhood Sunday,” the last Sunday in February is a time to hear from people of various religious faiths and share our common concerns about fostering harmony locally and globally. This year’s speaker is:

Susan M. Pudelek

Coordinator of Interreligious Relations in the Office for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs, Archdiocese of Chicago

Susan has long been involved in local, national and international interfaith work as the Roman Catholic representative. She has been and continues to be active in the Parliament of the World’s Religions and many other ecumenical groups. In June 2015 she was part of the Chicago delegation (with Rev. Patti) to the Vatican’s Buddhist Catholic Dialogue which included a meeting with Pope Francis. The Chicago group continues to meet regularly and participate in presentations such as “The Compassionate Heart” recent discussion (pictured above) at Our Lady of Pompeii where Susan has served as programs director. She is a liturgical dancer and singer and a certified leader in InterPlay©, a worldwide organization which offers activities for community building through games and storytelling.
