2019 - MOCHI TSUKI

Sunday, December 29

Join the fun!

In the spirit of Oneness, in preparation for the new year, may this year's mochi-tsuki (rice-cake pounding) be a healthy gathering of family and friends, young and old, masters and apprentices, workers and on-lookers, symbolized by the many grains of mochigome that are washed, steamed, pounded, turned and formed to make delicious cakes.

Rice is washed and soaked the day before (Saturday the 28th).

Setup on Sunday begins at 7:00am.

First pounding is around 10:30am (before 11am service).

After service (around noon), mochi is available to buy and enjoy.

Clean-up starts around 1:30pm.

For more information and to volunteer to help, Please contact Mochitsuki Chair: Tomio Tadamoto 773-274-0745
